The principal had never allowed me to get into close proximity to him so that I don't read his mind, well, I have cheated in a health check test and now everyone thinks my powers don't work!

So I've constructed a plan with Nick and he will overrun the school with rats and skunks. He'll tell the principal that I wanted to blackmail him so the principal will get into contact with me.

You see, some people are allowed to have their powers work at all times.
I probably shouldn't share this information with you... but there are microchips inside of our necks.

© 2021 PIXTON.COM

These microchips when activated deactivate powers. I don't have an enabled microchip because I'm trusted by the school.
This means that the shapeshifter broke into the school...

Heroes Ep5

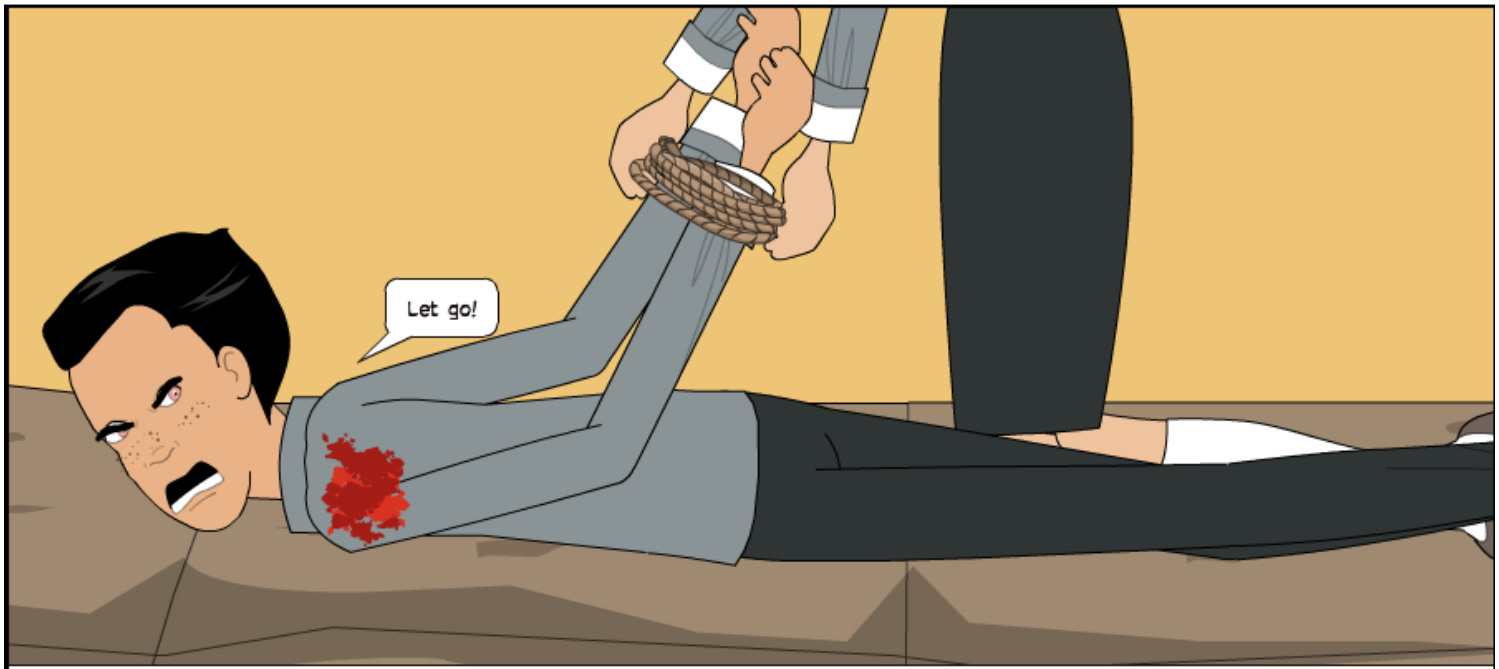
© 2021 PIXTON.COM

I have started this diary so that I could figure out what is so strange about... a school full of wannabe superheroes...

Mainly due to recent events.

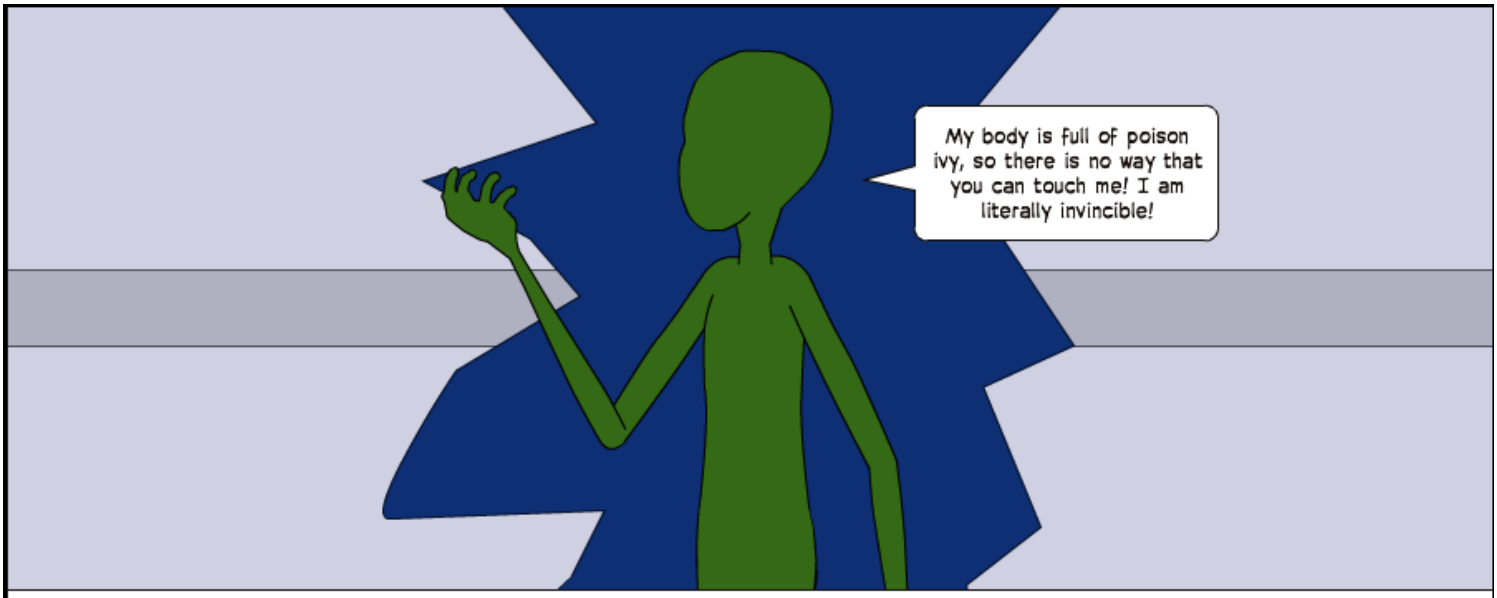
© 2021 PIXTON.COM

I guess that it all started 8 weeks ago. Mike, my best friend, had read our principal's mind. He ran away from school shortly after that.

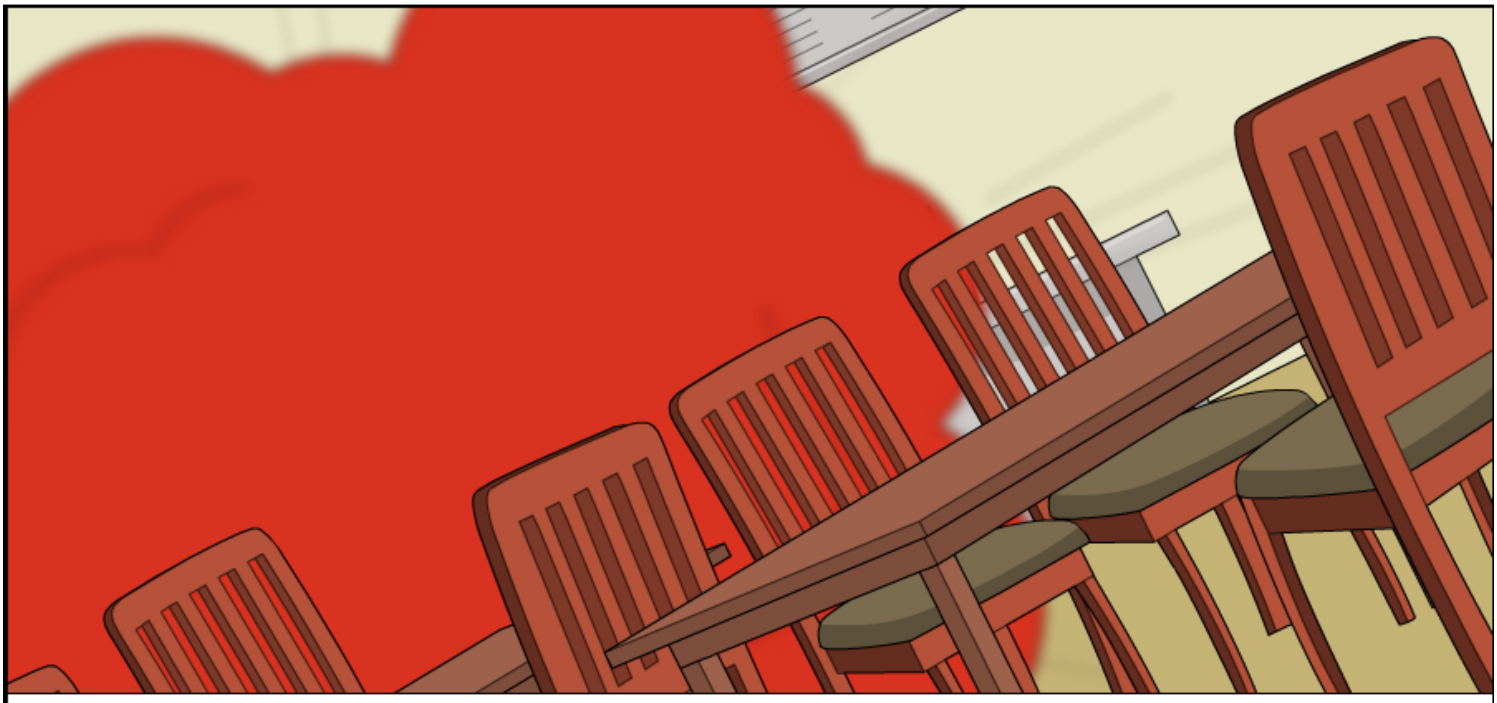


7 weeks ago, a shapeshifter had impersonated my friend Richard. I caught him... fortunately... although nobody still knows where the real Richard could be.

© 2021 PIXTON.COM



The same week, a man named Blake Stram for some reason attacked our school. He had the ability to absorb other people's powers. Only issue is... the person who's powers were to be absorbed would die. There are rumors that he killed his parents at birth thanks to that. There were 45 casualties in total. He told us that he had killed about 18 people. This confirms that he's either really bad at math, or just simply didn't care about who he killed. Atlas, one of the people who hate me for no reason, set him on fire and Blake probably died on the spot. If not, he was definitely executed afterwards by the school.



And two days ago, the cafeteria blew up.

Hah, let me guess. you were the guy whose mind I read and stopped him from comitting an arson attack.
Look smart-$#@, you're going to regret that!

This was also the first time that I met Atlas. Now that I think about it, this day is probably the reason he hates me.

It seems as if your chin somehow chipped off while I was drowning in a fountain. They didn't tell me how but I can assume that that weird guy did it.

© 2021 PIXTON.COM

There are three possibilities of what happened to Mike after he fled the school.

Scratch that. Two possibilities. IF he would be alive, he would tell us... somehow...

© 2021 PIXTON.COM

He either died in the forest due to low survivability...

Or he was murdered.

© 2021 PIXTON.COM

Maybe by accident.

Maybe I should see if anyone had a reason to kill him.

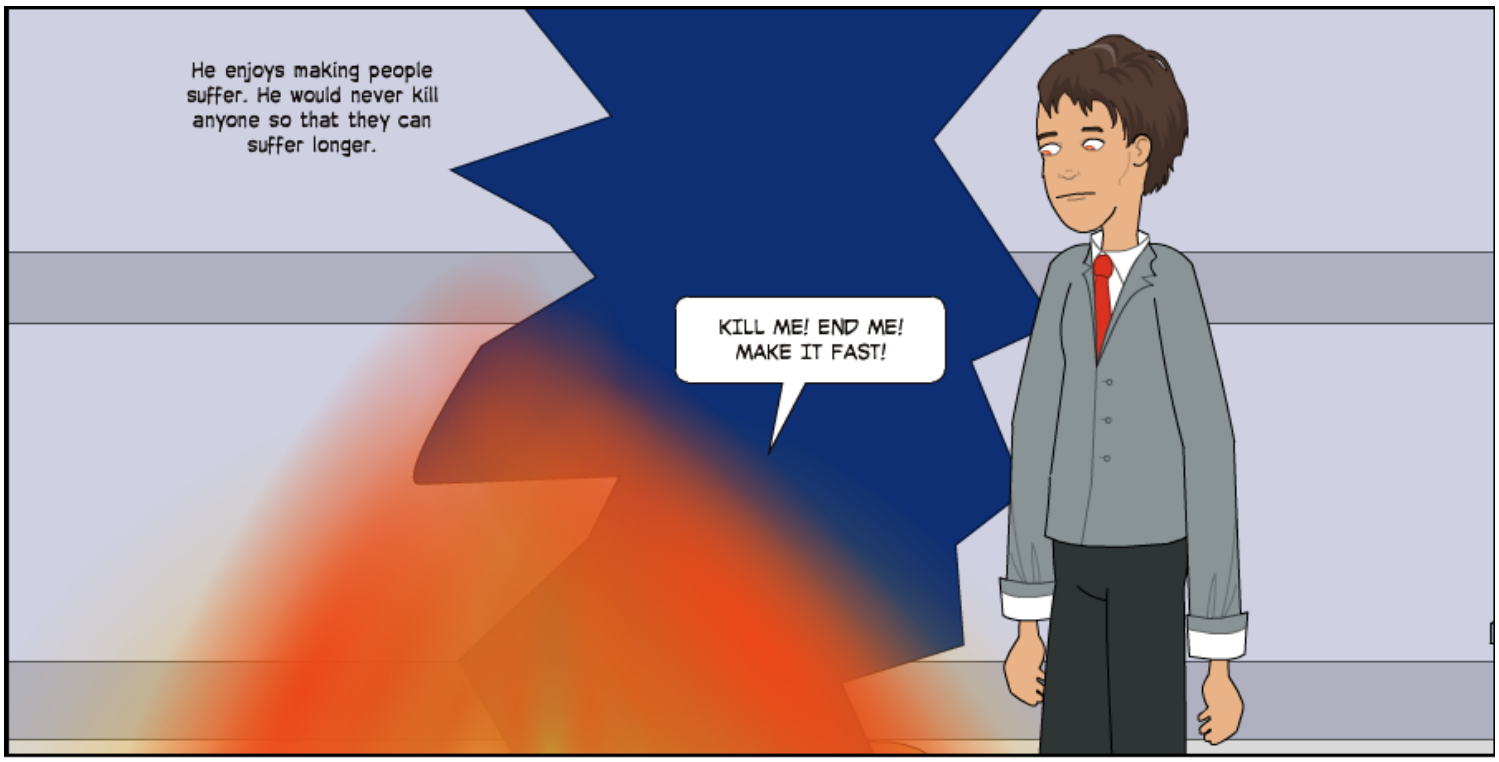
Suspect #1:
Atlas Rodrick
Hutchinson

© 2021 PIXTON.COM



Suspect #2:
Richard Fragger

© 2021 PIXTON.COM

We have very sad news.
Richard has been missing for the past 7 weeks.
Michael Insern has been found dead in his bed.
He is a very worried and emotional guy. He never seemed evil and he and Mike weren't that close... It can't be him.

© 2021 PIXTON.COM

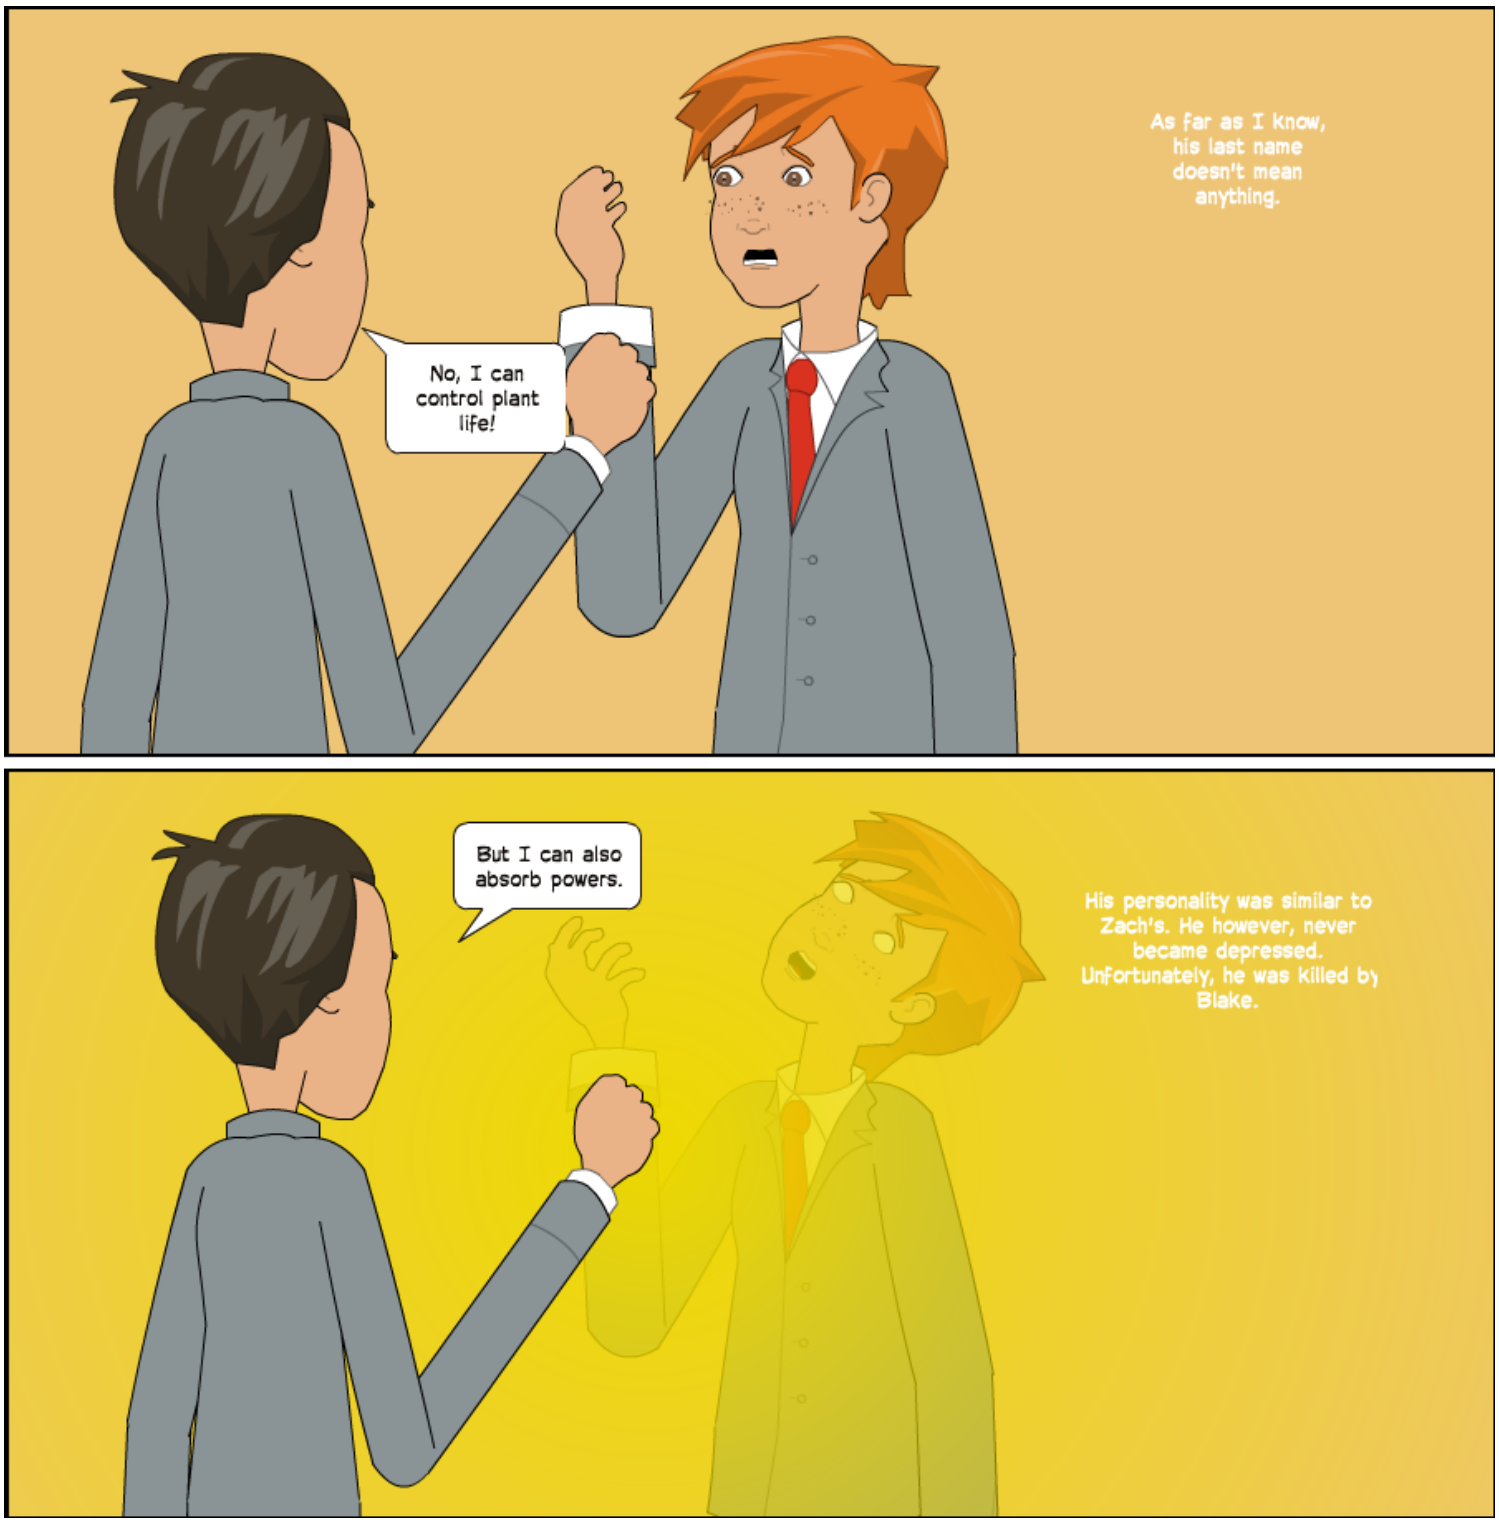
Suspect #3:
Zachary "Zach" Bilggins

It's pointless since the school has disabled our powers.
Zach used to be a very energetic guy, but after Mike disappeared, he became more depressed and anxious.

© 2021 PIXTON.COM

Suspect #4:
Nicholas Traskenschaft

© 2021 PIXTON.COM



No, I can control plant life!
As far as I know, his last name doesn't mean anything.
But I can also absorb powers.
His personality was similar to Zach's. He however, never became depressed. Unfortunately, he was killed by Blake.

Let's settle this.
